

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Low Tindler, the southpaw boxer of Philadelphia, and Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, will, in all probability, be matched for a fifteen round tilt at Madison Square garden in a few days. Negotiations have been pending for some time, but there has been a hitch over the financial considerations. Both want more than the garden management is willing to guarantee.

Displaying a classy brand of basketball, the Whiting H. S. second team defeated the St. Joseph A. C. last night at their gym, by a score of 21 to 13. Most of the credit of the victory is due Wickhorst, Whiting's right forward who caged 4 baskets, besides making 5 free throws. Tarnogradski played a stellar game for the St. Joseph A. C.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Dec. 11.—Jack Lawler of Omaha knocked out Red Dolan of this city in the seventh round of a fifteen round fight last night. Dolan was no match for the rugged Lawler, and when the latter started to fight in the sixth he sent Dolan crashing to the floor three times, ending it in the seventh with a left hook to the stomach that doubled the local man up.

[SPECIAL TO THE TIMES]
WHITING, Ind., Dec. 11.—The Hoosier Club of the Congregational church of Whiting would like to arrange a basketball game with the Hoosier team. The average from 12 to 15 years of age, and about 140 pounds in weight. The travel and our home games will be played on the spacious Community center. Just now we have a team championship called this year, and we feel that our past record entitles us to a crack at some of the topnotchers in our class. As three of the men on the team are captains in Coach Smith's junior high school basketball team, you may be sure that they are well grounded in the rudiments of the game. All home games will be handled by a scrupulous referee. Any teams wishing to arrange games with the Hoosier Club should write to the Hoosier Club, 333 New York avenue, Whiting, Ind.

Staloys are well known here after four battles on local grounds and will find a big battle among the local teams who have watched them in action. The starch working team is composed chiefly of stars of the Big Ten Conference who have been favored in the West for several seasons, and this game will give the local experts a chance to stack up the western conference bright lights against the pick-

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 11—You've got to hand it to the Ohio system of football—it gets results.

After eight years of successful operation under Athletic Director L. W. St. John and Dr. J. W. White, football coach, the Buckeye teams have annexed three western conference football championships and own an average of .585 in fifty-seven contests, three of which were won.

Only nine times in that period have the Scarlet and Gray bowed in defeat, and all nine were at the hands of Big Ten foes.

Since their admittance to the Western Conference in 1915 the Ohioans have won twenty-one, dropped nine and tied one game with Conference teams. Excluding the 1916 season, when S. A. T. Campbell ruled supreme and no title was awarded, the Buckeye's mark in the circuit showed twenty-one on the right side of the ledger, six lost and one tied, for an average of .777.

In that period Ohio State has amassed 1,377 points to 250 for its opponents and has gathered 446 points in Western Conference matches to 208 for its Big Ten foes.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Dec. 11.—"That's fine!" gasped George Gipp, Notre Dame's wonder football player, yesterday at St. Joseph's hospital when he was told of his selection on Walter Camp's all-American eleven. Gipp, who has hovered alarmingly near the death line with streptococci infection of the throat for several days, showed slight improvement yesterday. His heart action was stronger, his fever was reduced, and he was rational most of the day.
